

ST. PAUL'S REPORTER

Deepening our relationship with God, in Christ, through prayer, worship and loving servanthood.

November, 2010

From The Rector

*We are a welcoming congregation
witnessing God's justice, mercy, and reconciling love.*

We seek a deeper communion with God, with each other and the rest of God's creation.

*We reach beyond ourselves, both
in our shared spiritual journeys
and in our service
to our neighbors,
near and far.*

*We meet God together in our shared
worship,
prayer, study, service,
and fellowship.
We love and serve the Christ we find in each other.*

I am really grateful for the good spirit of our common life. There is so much generosity and good humor, it makes it a privilege to serve--especially when there's a lots going on!

I am grateful for the beginning of Camino Groups, small classes of people who are journeying together for a time. These have had over 55 people registered or involved. Courtney Edman is doing remarkable work administering these, supported particularly by a strong team including Connie Walsh, Alexy Boudreau, Kate Edgar and Joan Dedian.

These groups are an important way we can grow together in faith as a community. Please give thought to what you would love to study with others or how you would like to see these groups grow among us. Please contact Courtney with an ideas as the team is planning for the winter and spring now: theedmans5@yahoo.com or (508) 877-9514.

I am grateful for our staff and leadership who are so effective in many ways: The Rev. Paul Kolbet, our Associate Rector is a joy to work with, especially as he has shined a light into most of the tributaries of Christian thought and so freely shares it. I am appreciative of his excellent preaching for its depth and humor.

Christian Formation recently celebrated its fall start with strong teams of teachers in every classroom. Anne Young has been very effective in her role of coordinator working with our Christian formation team.

Our musical life has deepened in a variety of ways with youth choir now leading at 11:10 on a monthly basis, and with a new family choir at 11:10 every other week. These initiatives continue to strengthen our 11:10 worship life and give more the opportunity to sing, praying doubly! Thanks to Monique Weiss Byrnes continued enthusiasm for music making and for her invitational style to us all.

St. Paul's Youth, SPY is a growing youth community. This fall our youth group now includes well over 50 active participants from jr. through Sr. High. Amy Till's excellent leadership along with our outstanding youth, adult leaders and aides make an environment where it is easy to raise up a new generation of servant leaders. It is a joy to welcome Stephen McCarthy as a youth ministry intern, as he explores discerning a call toward ordination.

Our interest as a parish is not to be served but to serve alongside with Christ. This is because God has begun a project of good creation of which we are a part. It begins with calling the world "good, excellent", continues with our complete reconciliation in Christ, and flourishes in our shared life with the Holy Spirit. As Jesus saw faith in people where it was often least expected, please expect to find it within yourself, active and alive.

Join with the project of God. Remember your connection either when you are struggling or when you are joyful. Give back what has been given.

I look forward to reconnecting with our sister parish in Haiti this November 6-10 and having time with Pere Jean Nesly-Ais as he serves our sister congregation. Please pray for me and Leo Ryan who will be traveling to Port-de-Paix during that time. Please pray for Haiti and the challenges it faces throughout these next years.

Please join in the All Saints liturgy as we remember the greater communion of which we are a part on November 7th, as we remember those who lived out of God's love so that we might all have more life.

In Christ,

Jon+

Notes of thanks:

Carmen Goodridge recently celebrated a milestone birthday which was a wonderful celebration of parish family and her extended family and friends. It was truly a joy to be with her on this occasion and as always about every two minutes there was something really funny to be shared!

I thoroughly enjoyed Maryellen Ward's initiative of Hula Hoops for Haiti, as it raised over $1,000 for our sister parish and the Haiti Episcopal Partnership program. Thanks to Hamish Blackman's engineering work, several people Hula'd for the first time in their lives including me!

I was grateful for our continued support of Regina Retamal's sister in rebuilding her home after it was devastated in the recent earthquake in Chile. We have now raised about $2000 as a parish and hope to find a way to get to $3000 which would provide a modest home for her eldest sister who does not have a place to live.

Particular thanks go to Bob Wallace for his work in installing the floor in the True Vine Classroom in downstairs Gale House. Bob is a parishioner and local contractor who spent several days installing the beautiful new floor as a contribution to the parish. Who new it could look so good? Along with the contributions of Painter's Pride last spring, the downstairs of Gale House is a much brighter, attractive space.

Metrowest Interfaith Hospitality Network (MIHN)

St Paul's serves as one of fifteen host congregations for the Metrowest IHN a cooperative, inter-faith partnership offering hope to homeless families with children through safe transitional shelter, meals, and supportive case management as they seek permanent housing.

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO HELPED US MAKE ST. PAULS A HOME FOR IHN FAMILIES SEPTEMBER 19 – 26.

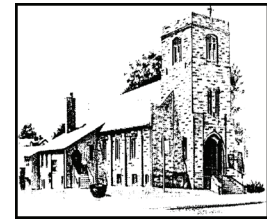

This time around St. Paul's hosted two families, cooking and serving delicious meals, helping with homework, playing board games, and visiting with our guests. Thanks to all who helped set up and breakdown the bedrooms, laundered linens, spent the night and woke up at the crack of dawn to host breakfast. All your efforts helped make St. Paul's a warm and inviting place for the families to call home for the week.

Speaking of a place to call home, Yadira and her son Stephen moved into their own apartment during the host week! Please keep them in your prayers as they work to make their new apartment a home.

Our next host week is just around the corner. IHN families will be staying at St. Paul's November 28 to December 5. What better way to live out Thanksgiving and share the hope, joy, peace and love of Advent, then to help us welcome our IHN guests. Please consider volunteering. Sign-up on the volunteer poster board in Sherril Hall or contact Deb Valle or Grace Kelemanik or another member of the St. Paul's IHN Team (Joanne Murray, John Till, and Claire Fields).

RECTORY REFRESH UPDATE

The rectory refresh is scheduled to start the first week of November.

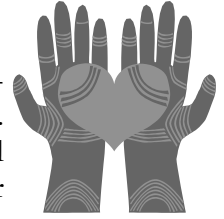

Phase I will be enclosing the screened in porch and updating the kitchen. It should be completed sometime around Christmas. Phase II is scheduled to start in the spring and will include installing energy efficient replacement windows, insulating the attic, painting the interior, and possibly enlarging the basement entrance area to accommodate a small mud room.

Thanks to the Building Committee, Finance Committee, Vestry and diocese for all their help with this project.

Bud Killam, Sr. Warden

STEWARDSHIP 2010

If you have already pledged for 2011, THANK YOU! We give thanks for your ongoing contributions of time, talent, and treasure, for which we are always deeply grateful. Please note that there is now another option for fulfilling your pledge – via a PayPal feature on our web site. See www.stpaulsnatick.org or contact Karen Van Voorhis for more information.

If you have not already pledged for 2011, we encourage you to thoughtfully and intentionally consider your support of St. Paul's in 2011. Understanding our projected 2011 income helps the finance committee and the vestry make informed decisions on behalf of the parish. The information below may also help you as you discern your 2011 pledge.

Shhh we're having a "quiet" campaign this year. Fall is traditionally the time we think about our ability to support the parish in the upcoming year. While your stewardship committee strives to give you all the information you need, this year we hope to ensure your family has time to reflect and prayerfully discern the pledge that makes the most sense for your family in 2011. The responsibility for the financial health of the parish and the missions we support needs to be shared by all of us as we are able to lighten the load.

Please take some time to reflect on what a healthy and sustainable St. Paul's looks like to you, and how you and your family can support this mission.

The stewardship campaign is going green. Only one small mailing was sent to each parishioner in October. This is quite different than the large folder of information that had been mailed in large envelopes in recent years. Instead, all information related to stewardship, pledging, and our budget can be found on our web site (www.stpaulsnatick.org). There are also answers to many frequently asked questions on the site, which may be of particular interest to those who are relatively new to St. Paul's. We strive to be as transparent as possible with financial and other related information – if you have any questions about the information on the site, contact Karen Van Voorhis, Rolf Stottmann, or the church office.

Pledge in your pajamas! In place of the more traditional paper pledge forms, the stewardship section of the web site has a pledge form that can be completed and submitted confidentially on-line. Once your pledge is submitted, you will receive a confirmation e-mail. Using our on-line pledging process will eliminate paper waste and will assure that your pledge is recorded properly. We strongly encourage everyone who can to submit their 2011 pledge on-line. Pledges also can be submitted via e-mail (to Rolf Stottmann, or to the church office at info@stpaulsnatick.org), mailed to the church, or placed in the offering plate.

Our cost savings will go to support outreach. We estimate that posting most of our information on the web site and pledging on-line will easily save several hundred dollars from our stewardship budget by significantly reducing our copying and postage costs. We are excited to announce our intention to contribute these savings to one of St. Paul's worthy outreach efforts.

Our stewardship goals are similar to last year. We continue to celebrate the tremendous growth at St. Paul's in recent years. However, this has necessarily meant increases in operational costs, and we want to avoid drawing on our endowment to cover those costs. Our goals for this year are similar to those in others years. Specifically, we strive for:

100% participation from all parishioners who call St. Paul's their home

Proportional gifts, ideally 2.6% of household income (the average in the Episcopal church)

Broadening our financial base more equitably among all parish households

These goals have been designed to ensure long-term financial health for our beloved spiritual home.

Advent Compline at St. Paul's

Compline, also known as Night Prayer or Prayers at the End of the Day is a beautiful service of prayers, psalms and readings sung at the completion of the working day. The ancient office of Compline derives its name from a Latin word meaning 'completion' (completorium). It is above all a service of quietness and reflection before rest at the end of the day. This Advent we invite you to join in Compline at St.

Paul's. Compline will be offered Thursday evenings during Advent beginning Thursday, December 2 through Thursday, December 23 from 7:00 - 7:30 pm. A Compline Choir will support the service and all are welcome to take part in this offering. Compline Choir will rehearse Thursday evening, November 11 and 18 from 6:30 - 7:30 and then meet at 6:30 for rehearsal the evenings of Compline.

St. Paul's Hymn of the Month "Now Thank We All Our God" Nun Danket Alle Gott

As a way of continuing our deepening of faith in song we join together and sing the classic Thanksgiving hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God" which transcends all national, language and denominational boundaries. The origin of this hymn however was not one of national thanksgiving, but rather was intended as a hymn for family table. Martin Rinckart, the author of the text and the archdeacon of Eilenburg, Saxony had written on his manuscript that this song was for his children to sing. During the month of November we hope you will embrace this hymn with family around table. We encourage you to sing it, discuss the text, and find ways to engage in the learning of the hymn as a way of enriching your spiritual walk together. You can hear the hymn on St. Paul's website under hymn of the month.

Now thank we all our God, with heart, and hands, and voices,
who wondrous things hath done, in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mother's arms hath blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us!
with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us;
and keep us in his grace, and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given,
the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven,
eternal, Triune God, whom earth and heaven adore;
for thus it was, is now, and shall be, evermore.

Musically in Christ, Monique Weiss Byrnes

Christian Formation News

We had a great start to our church school year and thanks to all of our wonderful teachers and aides that are volunteering in our classes. Employing the team teaching approach has really given us coverage in our classes and allows a forum for our volunteers to discuss teaching our students to the best of our abilities. We have 5 classes at the 9:30 service and 3 classes at 11:10 that are populated by 85 children overall.

Upcoming Classes:

November 7: No classes - All Saints Day programming for children for the Liturgy of the Word part of the service. Then the All Saints Parade at the Offertory. We are looking for costumed individuals to help us celebrate. We need the following; a queen, a shepherdess, a sailor, a priest, people having tea, church goers, school children, a fierce wild beast.

November 14 - Regular classes

November 21 - Regular classes

November 28 - No classes - Thanksgiving weekend

December 5 - Regular classes

December 12 - Regular classes

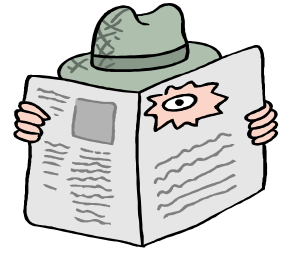

December 19 - Regular classes

Quote of the week:

"I'd really like the church to be my classroom."

Greetings People of St. Paul's,

On October 17th we gathered all youth in grades 6-12 together for a fun and informal youth liturgy. We sang contemporary songs, heard the Gospel and a sermon from Jon, prayed and shared Eucharist. Our fabulous young people stepped right up and led one another by reading the Old Testament and Psalm, leading our prayers, playing guitar, singing, and sharing the Cup. We ended the evening with pizza and dessert in Sherrill Hall. I loved bringing our groups together like this and I look forward to our next youth liturgy on December 19th!

The next BIG THING in youth ministry at St. Paul's is our November retreats!

Youth in 6th-8th grade are invited to the Barbara C. Harris Camp and Conference Center in Greenfield, New Hampshire.

High school students are invited to the Happening Retreat at Christ Church in Gardiner, Maine.

I highly recommend these retreats and would love to talk with any parent or young person who wants to know more! Information is also available in the bin by the SPY bulletin board in Sherrill Hall (on the wall by the coffee). Please send an email to amy.till.spy@gmail.com if your son or daughter plans to attend one of these retreats, and kindly let me know as soon as possible so I can coordinate carpools, etc.

Please join me in thanking our adult youth leaders who have stepped forward to chaperone these retreats. Mark Johnson and I are attending the Middle School retreat at Barbara C. Harris camp, and Kristen Arnold, Heather Lermaniaux, Stephen McCarthy, and Rob Young will be heading to Maine with our high schoolers.
