

ST. PAUL'S REPORTER

Deepening our relationship with God, in Christ, through prayer, worship and loving servanthood.

February, 2012

From the Rector...

We are a welcoming congregation witnessing God's justice, mercy, and reconciling love.

We seek a deeper communion with God, with each other and the rest of God's creation.

We reach beyond ourselves, both in our shared spiritual journeys and in our service to our neighbors, near and far.

We meet God together in our shared worship, prayer, study, service, and fellowship.

We love and serve the Christ we find in each other.

I am really grateful to be home from Haiti and to have had the time to be with the people of our sister parish in Holy Innocents, Port-de-Paix and the missions on the Island of La Tortue and in Morne Rosette. The healing was about connection. It was healing to connect with the gifts St. Paul's has provided that are being used so well, and healing to finally be in the presence of people we are united with in Christ. I was so grateful to meet the people we have held in our prayers for so long.

We need the healing that they give us. We need the perspective of other members of the body of Christ to restore us. Being in relationship with our sister parish that is in such a struggling economy undoes the half-truths we tell ourselves about what truly matters. In the end, our relationships matter; in the end, what we do with what we have matters; in the end, treating all human life as sacred matters. A faith community with strong values of welcoming, worshipping and serving, matters in Haiti and here at home.

God is love. Everything else is just "stuff". Sharing and working with the love God has for creation and for all people, even ourselves, helps us sort out what life is about. Look at your life through the lens of the love God has for us: the honoring of people that Jesus did, the sacrifice of his life, his enjoyment of others, but more than that, his invitation to new life always when he speaks "Peace" to the disciples after his death. Let what you see be opened up by looking through God's eyes of love for us, all of us. Let him speak "Peace" to you in love and let it change you. Let him bless you. It will give you enough to live in connection with God who loves us and invites us to a life of love.

This year's annual meeting to review our work of the past year and take time to look ahead happens on Sunday, February 5th with one service at 10am. A combined church school will begin at 9:15am and combined children's choir rehearsals start at 8:30am. We will share brunch after the meeting at 11:00am which will last just about one hour. Please see the sign up in Sherrill Hall for this time. It will prepare us for the same schedule with the Bishops visit March 11th.

As I review this past year, there are so many ministry efforts for which I am deeply grateful: our continued support of Holy Innocents school and congregation, our strong children's formation and youth formation programs, our adult formation offerings, our strong worship experiences which involve the community, the deepening of our music programs, our sponsoring of seminarians, Audrey O' Brien and Ken Schmidt and next year, Stephen McCarthy and Stephen Trever.

As I look ahead, I am grateful for the excellent work done on our long-range plan. There is much good work to engage us in Christ's ministry here and beyond our walls. May God bless us in moving forward towards new goals of vital ministry, vital refreshment, shared life in Christ.

We still have much to learn however, and that is our place of prayer, where we ask help from God and each other. Sometimes it feels to me we haven't yet entirely "hit our stride" always at the 11:10 service and we will be inviting further ways to deepen that experience of worship.

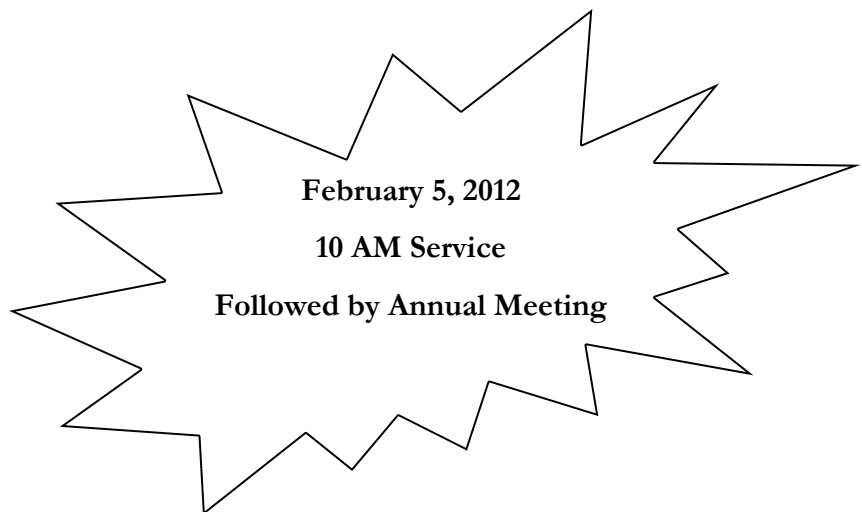

One of the ways to deepen that I saw in our sister parish in Haiti, was the way their congregation could sing for a stretch of 20 minutes at a time with songs they all knew by heart. It was such an outpouring of joy and prayer. Could something like that be possible for us? We are striving to memorize several of St. Paul's "favorites" for Bishop Shaw's visit—please see Monique's article.

But I'm also wondering if we need to keep opening up our musical vocabulary even more. Are there communal songs/hymns that are your favorites that you would like to be part of our worship? Could we develop a St. Paul's "Top 20"? "Top 50?" hymns and songs we want to belt out at the top of our lungs? I know it's not very New England-like, but singing with joy gives us even more spiritual strength. We do often sing with much joy, but we could strengthen that joy in our lives even more. Please go to the website and submit 5-10 communal songs/hymns that are your favorite that you would love us to memorize, even if they are from another tradition, as long as copyrights aren't too burdensome—or we can work with them, it's very possible we could incorporate some new favorites. There is a survey link there.

Thank you for the good work you've done to "Close the Gap". Pray for our sharing responsibility for financial wellness together; and give thanks in all things. Your support makes a huge difference. See the bulletin board in Sherrill Hall to chart our progress. Thank you for your care.

In Christ,

Jon+

*Watch over thy children,
O Lord,
as their days increase;
bless and guide them
wherever they may be. Strengthen them
where they stand;
comfort them
when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up
if they fall
and in their hearts
may your peace which passes understanding abide
all the days of their lives through Jesus Christ our Lord.*

Some St. Paul's youth are going to be taking a mission trip to El Salvador this summer with the Youth Leadership Academy (YLA), a program of the Diocese of Massachusetts for high-schoolers to develop their leadership skills, build long lasting friendships, and grow in faith together.

YLA

Lead by Bishop Shaw, YLA started off with a week at the Barbara C. Harris Camp and then continues throughout the year by taking on church projects, such as leading the acolytes or improving the church website, as a way to give back to their sponsoring churches. The final component is a one week mission trip accompanying Bishop Shaw to El Salvador. This unusual opportunity will deepen their faith, broaden their understanding of the world, and develop their leadership in helping youth finding their own faith. St. Paul's is accepting donations to defray the cost for each teen. Checks in any amount can be made out to St. Paul's Natick with YLA in the memo. For more information, please contact Megan Lightcap. Also, please consider joining us for our first of three date nights on February 11th in Sherrill Hall from 4:30-9:30.

St. Paul's Music

Hymn preparation for Bishop Shaw's Visit

Bishop Shaw is visiting St. Paul's on March 11 giving us the opportunity to show our care for each other as Christian community in singing of hymns in full voice by memory. Just imagine creating everyone singing in full voice the hymns sung by heart that are part of the community of St. Paul's. To prepare for this visit the following three hymns will be sung throughout February. Enjoy the process of learning the hymns by heart and the discoveries you make on your musical journey!

"Lord, Who Throughout These Forty Days" St. Flavian

"Lord, who throughout these forty days" is a Lenten hymn held close to the hearts of Episcopalians. Claudia Frances Hernaman wrote the text primarily for the prayerful teaching of certain aspects of the Christian observance of Lent to children. It was first published in 1873 in her book, "A Child's Book of Praise" and entered the Episcopal hymnal in 1892.

Lord, who throughout these forty days for us didst fast and pray,
Teach us with thee to mourn our sins, and close by thee to stay.

As thou with Satan didst contend and dist the victory win,
O give us strength in thee to fight, in thee to conquer sin.

As thou didst hunger bear and thirst, so teach us gracious Lord,
To die to self, and chiefly live by thy most holy word.

And through these days of penitence, and through thy Passiontide,
Yea, evermore, in life and death, Jesus! with us abide.

Abide with us, that so, this life of suffering overpast,
An Easter of unending joy we may attain at last!

"When I Survey The Wondrous Cross" Rockingham

This classic text by Isaac Watts is one of his finest works and matched with the tune Rockingham is recognized as one of the most deeply loved and inspirational hymns of congregations around the world. The tune name Rockingham is named after a small Northhamptonshire village in England.

When I survey the wondrous cross
Where the young Prince of Glory died,
my riches gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.
Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the cross of Christ my God:
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down!
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?
Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all.

Hymn Of The Month
“Lead Me, Guide Me”

Doris Akers composed "Lead me, guide me" in 1943 and it has become one of the best loved Gospel hymns of the later part of the twentieth century. It's text is about affirming a personal relationship with God and is a marvelous hymn that embraces and builds Christian community in liturgy. This hymn particularly invites clapping on beats two and three of the refrain. The learning of this by heart will help for the full communal engagement and presence each of our walks with our Lord for the Bishop's visit.

Refrain

Lead me, guide me, along the way,
For if you lead me, I cannot stray.
Lord, let me walk each day with Thee.
Lead me, Oh Lord, lead me.

I am weak and I need thy strength and power
to help me over my weakest hour;
Help me through the darkness thy face to see,
Lead me, Oh Lord, lead me. Refrain

Help me tread in the paths of righteousness,
be my aid when satan and sin oppress;
I am putting all my trust in thee,
Lead me, Oh Lord, lead me. Refrain

I am lost if you take your hand from me,
I am blind without thy light to see;
Lord, just always let me they servant be.
Lead me, Oh Lord, lead me. Refrain
